OUR STORY: A LIVING HISTORY

Asheville, NC – Asheville Parks and Recreation will present Our Story: A Living History at the W.C. Reid Center for Creative Arts, 133 Livingston St. with performances on February 25 at 6 p.m., and on February 26 at 2 p.m. The play is part of the Reid Center Cultural Renaissance Arts Program with support from the Junior League of Asheville. Admission is $5 for adults and free for ages 18 and under. The One Love reception will follow each performance.

Our Story: A Living History is a living museum and play celebrating black history composed by youth at the Reid Center and under the direction of April Turner. The story is based on African Americans who made a difference in our culture through inventors, writers, scientists, freedom fighters and musicians.

For more information and reservations, contact the Reid Center at 350-2048.
